Aim and Scope of the SAF Book Series

Severe Asthma Forum (SAF) is a peer-reviewed series of monographs at University of Primorska Press that provides an academic forum for the dissemination of knowledge on asthma, its current state of research, and treatment from a medical sciences perspective.

The monograph series welcomes both theoretical and applicative contributions and encourages authors to use various quantitative and qualitative research methodologies. Besides manuscripts based on primary research (papers), the book series also publishes reviews and conference reports.

General Guidelines and Policy of the Series

Manuscripts are accepted in British English; however, consistency throughout the paper is expected.

All manuscripts are subject to an initial editorial screening for plagiarism, for adherence to the monograph series style, for anonymity, and for correct use of English. In case of any type of plagiarism discovered, manuscript is rejected without any further explanation.

As a result of editorial screening your paper will be either accepted for further consideration or returned for revision or rejected. To avoid unnecessary errors you are strongly advised to have your manuscript proofread prior to submission.

Manuscripts should be organized in the following manner:

- title,
- author(s) and affiliation(s),
- abstract,
- keywords,
- main text,
- acknowledgements,
- references, and
- appendices (as appropriate).

Reviewing

Each manuscript, meeting the technical standards and falling within the aims and scope of the series, will be subject to double-blind peer review by two reviewers.

The referees are chosen by the editor-in-chief and/or editorial board; however, authors can propose up to two reviewers for revision of their work and also up to two reviewers they would like to avoid.

Assessments by the referees will be presented anonymously to the author and, in the case of substantial reservations, the manuscript, with the list of corrections needed, will be returned to the author for correction.

The corrected copy of the manuscript with the list of corrections on a separate page should be returned to the editor-in-chief Škrjat.

Permissions

Authors wishing to include figures, tables, appendices, or any other text passages that have already been published elsewhere, are required to obtain permission from the copy-right owner(s) and to include evidence that such permission has been granted when submitting their manuscripts. Any material received without such evidence will be assumed to originate from the authors.

Submission declaration

Submission of a manuscript implies that it has not been published previously (except in the form of abstract or as part of a published lecture or academic thesis), that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, that its publication is approved by all its authors and tacitly or explicitly by the responsible authorities where the work was carried out. The corresponding author should ensure that all appropriate co-authors and no inappropriate co-authors are included on the paper, and that all co-authors have seen and approved the final version of the manuscript and have agreed to its submission for publication.

Conflict of interest

All authors are requested to disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest including any financial, personal or other relationships with other people or organizations within three years of beginning the submitted work that could inappropriately influence, or be perceived as such, their work.

Manuscript Submission

The main manuscript document should be in Microsoft Word document form. The manuscript document as well as any other materials regarding publication should be submitted to:

sabina.skr gat@ukclj.si (Editor-in-Chief of Severe Asthma Forum Series) jonatan.vinkler@upr.si (Editor-in-Chief at University of Primorska Press).

Manuscript Preparation

Manuscripts should be prepared according to the style prescribed by the Citing Medicine, NLM Style Guide (Citing Medicine: The NLM Style Guide for Authors, Editors, and Publishers [Internet]. 2nd edition. Patrias K, author; Wendling D, editor. Bethesda (MD): National Library of Medicine (US); 2007-). See also <https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/books/NBK7256/>).

Language and style

The first author is fully and solely responsible for the language and style in the context of the instructions. A solid standard command of grammar, scientific terminology and style is expected.

Text formatting

Please, use the automatic page numbering function to number the pages. Use tab stops or other commands for indents, not the space bar. Use the table function, not spreadsheets, to make tables. Use the equation editor or MathType for equations. Whenever possible, use the si units (Système international d'unités).

should include:

- the title of the article (no more than 85 characters, including spaces),
- full name of the author(s),
- affiliation (institution name) of each author clearly identified; linked to each author by use of superscript numbers, corresponding author's full name and e-mail address.

Abstract

The authors are obliged to prepare abstract. The content of the abstract should be structured into the following sections:

- purpose,
- methods,
- results, and

– conclusion.

It should only contain the information that appears in the text as well. It should contain no reference to figures, tables and citations published in the main text, and should not exceed 250 words.

Beneath the abstract, the authors should supply appropriate keywords (3–6).

The main text should contain a coherent and logical structure preferably following the IMRAD format (Introduction, Methods, Research [and] Discussion). However, other structures are also welcome (e.g. Introduction, Development and Conclusions) as long as the text maintains its logical structure, textual coherence and focus. Acknowledgments are optional.

The length of the manuscript should not exceed 11,000 words (including tables, figures, and references), double spaced, using Times New Roman font sized 12.

Tables

Each table should be submitted on a separate page in a Word document after References. Each table shall have a brief caption; explanatory matter should be in the footnotes below the table. The table shall contain means and the units of variation (sd, se, etc.) and must be free of nonsignificant decimal places. Abbreviations used in the tables must be consistent with those used in the text and figures. Definition symbols should be listed in the order of appearance, determined by reading horizontally across the table and should be identified by standard symbols. All tables should be numbered consecutively (Table 1, Table 2, etc.).

Captions are required for all Figures and shall appear on a separate manuscript page, beneath table captions. Each figure should be saved as a separate file without captions and named as Figure 1, etc. Files should be submitted in *.tiff or *.jpeg format. Photographs should be saved at at least 300 dpi. Line art images should be saved at 1200 dpi. Lettering (symbols, letters, and numbers) should be between 8 and 9 points, with consistent spacing and alignment. Type face may be Serif (Minion or Times) or Sans Serif (Myriad or Helvetica). Line width should be 0.5 point or greater. Any extra white or black space surrounding the image should be cropped. Ensure that subject-identifying information (i.e., faces, names, or any other identifying features) is cropped out or opaqued. Prior to publication, the author(s) should obtain all necessary authorizations for the publication of the illustrative matter and submit them to the both above mentioned editors-in-chief. All figures should be numbered consecutively (Figure 1, Figure 2, etc.). If the paper contains graphs, we would appreciate that you also e-mail them in a separate Excel file.

References

References should be formatted according to Citing Medicine, NLM Style Guide (Citing Medicine: The NLM Style Guide for Authors, Editors, and Publishers [Internet]. 2nd edition. Patrias K, author; Wendling D, editor. Bethesda (MD): National Library of Medicine (US); 2007-).

The list of references should include solely works that are cited in the text. References should be complete and contain all the authors that have been listed in the title of the original publication. If you are citing a work that is in print but has not yet been published, state all the data and write ‘forthcoming.’

Reference list entries should be alphabetized by the last name of the first author of each work. Do not use footnotes or endnotes as a substitute for a reference list. Full titles of journals are required (not their abbreviations).

Citing References in Text

One author. The innovation discussed above is mentioned (Brooks, 2010). Thomas (1992) had concluded . . .

Two authors. This result was later contradicted (Swarbrooke & Horner, 2007). Price and Murphy (2000) pointed out . . .

Three or more authors. (Wolchik et al., 1999).

If two references with three or more authors shorten to the same form, cite the surnames of the first author and of as many of the subsequent authors as necessary to distinguish the two references, followed by a coma and et al.

List several authors for the same thought or idea with separation by using a semicolon: (Kalthof et al., 1999; Biegern & Roberts, 2005).

Dr. Sabina Škrbat graduated from the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Ljubljana (1996). She is a specialist in internal medicine (2004) and pneumonology (2011). Dr. Škrbat earned her PhD degree at the University of Ljubljana (2009) with the topic of investigation related to angiogenesis and complement activation in asthma and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease.

Her main clinical work consists of the management of patients with severe asthma and other obstructive lung diseases. She is currently a clinical lead of severe asthma service at University Medical Centre Ljubljana, she is active as a national lead for Severe Heterogenous Asthma Research collaboration, Patient-centred (SHARP) ERS Clinical Research. She has been a coordinator for asthma and severe asthma National asthma recommendations. Development of coordinated multidisciplinary approach to severe asthma patients and COPD and development of strategies toward lowering systemic glucocorticoides load in Slovenia are her activities at national level for better treatment of these chronic airway diseases.
